

NATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR EMPOWERMENT OF PERSONS WITH MULTIPLE DISABILITIES (DIVYANGJAN)

Department of Adult Independent Living

NIEPMD/DAIL/30(5)/2023-24/

Date 01/04/2024

OPEN DAY MEET REPORT- FEBRUARY'24
(Sharing for caring)

The Open Day Meet for the parents of DAIL clients was conducted on February 29, 2024, with a participation of 34 Parents and 8 Students. Mrs. C. Mala, Vocational Instructor has commenced the meet with a welcome address, outlining objectives and emphasizing the collaborative approach between parents and DAIL in monitoring and mentoring client progress.

Team Members:

J.V. Subbaraman	Rehabilitation Officer
Dr.Siva Prasad	Special Invitee - Scientist II (Homeopathy)
Mr.Pratap karasala	Senior Clinical Associate
Mr.D.Gunasekar	Rehabilitation Officer
Mrs.R. Anandhanayaki	Placement officer
Mrs.C.Mala	Vocational Instructor

DAIL- Beneficiaries

Mrs. Anandhanayaki, Placement Officer, has introduced Dr.Sivaprasad - the Special Guest, and requested for his special address on "Homeopathic Care for Adults with Multiple Disabilities."

Dr.Sivaprasad - Special Invitee addressing about Homeopathy

Following Dr. Sivaprasad has explained the principles of homeopathy, illustrating its effectiveness in addressing common issues such as colds, coughs, and emotional disorders. He emphasized the importance and utility of homeopathy in treating problems related to emotions and the body, including Psychosomatic disorders, Autoimmune diseases, and health issues in individuals of all ages.

Highlighting the holistic nature of homeopathy, Dr. Sivaprasad underscored its potential benefits for individuals with multiple disabilities, including Intellectual disabilities, Mental Illness, Autism Spectrum Disorder, Specific Learning Disabilities & Multiple Disabilities. He assured significant improvements in the care and management of persons with multiple disabilities through the integration of homeopathy into "Holistic Rehabilitation approaches" and thereby enhanced overall well-being and quality of life.

Succeedingly, Mr.Gunasekar, Rehabilitation officer has explained about various Job opportunities of both govt & private, free coaching offered, practices of Job fair and Walk in interviews.

Mr.D.Gunasekar – Addressing about Job coaching courses .

Mr Pratap karasala, Clinical Assistant narrated about the various Skill training courses of DAIL & it's scope. Nextly Mrs. Anandanayaki Placement Officer has explained the impact of Life skills in the daily living of children and adults with multiple disabilities and quick performance of routine life activities.

Mr. Pratapkarasala – Adressing about Vocational Skill Training Courses.

Ensuingly Mrs Mala, Vocational instructor led the feedback session where in the participants have expressed their utmost gratitude to Dr. Sivaprasad & DAIL team for organizing such a beneficial session offering hope and practical solutions for a better quality of life. The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks, reaffirming the commitment and continued support for individual with multiple disabilities & family.